Revelation 14:6-12

 Christian Experience, p. 189

“Not all who profess to keep the Sabbath will be sealed. There are many even among those who teach the truth to others who will not receive the seal of God in their foreheads.”

 Christian Experience, p. 189

“They had the light of truth, they knew their Master’s will, they understood every point of our faith, but they had not corresponding works. These who were so familiar with prophecy and the treasures of divine wisdom, should have acted their faith....”

 Christian Experience, p. 189

“Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot or stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul-temple of every defilement.”

Why the
Seventh-day
Adventists Are Succeeding

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“Unlike most Christian denominations, the Seventh-day Adventist Church has barely been touched by the current ecumenical movement.”

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“For the devout Adventist, the Sabbath begins at sundown Friday as it does for Orthodox Jews. Meals are prepared on Friday so that food preparation need not take up the wives’ time on the Sabbath. Saturday morning is spent in church and Sabbath-school.

Exodus 16:23

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“For the devout Adventist, the Sabbath begins at sundown Friday as it does for Orthodox Jews. Meals are prepared on Friday so that food preparation need not take up the wives’ time on the Sabbath. Saturday morning is spent in church and Sabbath-school.

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“The rest of the day is devoted to Bible-reading and study, simple family recreation such as nature walks, prayer, and discussing Bible topics with friends. The radio and TV are silent until the end of the Sabbath at sundown on Saturday.”

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“Could we contrast this observance of the Sabbath with that which characterizes the conduct of millions of Christians? In too many homes, Sunday may be a day free from regular employment, but it is really just another day of the week.

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“We know that shopping centers and stores could not make a profit on Sunday, if millions of Christians did not choose that day of the week to buy furniture, automobiles, appliances, groceries, and clothing.”

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“Our Adventist friends remind us that the Sabbath was not given only to a band of desert people centuries ago, but to each generation of men. God asks that all men set apart one day out of seven to His service as well as to the re-creation of the human body and spirit.

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“As Catholics, we have often aimed at a minimal observance of the Lord’s day [Sunday]. We attend mass, and avoid servile work broadly defined. Perhaps the Adventists can remind us that the creative and holy observance of the day demands more than this bare minimum.”

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“We can see that the decision to become an Adventist would not be made lightly. The convert would be expected to tithe his income, attend Sabbath services every week, abstain from all unnecessary work on the Sabbath,

U.S. Catholic, Sept. 1962

“...forego liquor and tobacco, educate his children in parochial schools, avoid dancing, card-playing, and movies, give up cosmetics and jewelry, sever any connection with a secret society. Yet the Adventists seem to be a purposeful, contented people who derive a deep satisfaction from their religion.”

Testimonies, Vol. 6, p. 353

Testimonies, Vol. 6, p. 353

"Far more sacredness is attached to the Sabbath than is given it by many professed Sabbathkeepers. The Lord has been greatly dishonored by those who have not kept the Sabbath according to the commandment, either in the letter or in the spirit. He calls for a reform in the observance of the Sabbath."
