SUMMARY OF STUDENT STANDARDS OF CONDUCT: (A more detailed AFCOE Africa Student Policy Handbook is available for download at www.afcoeafrica.com)

Children

Applicants who have infants or children should plan to provide for the care of their children with relatives or family friends at their home. AFCOE Africa students may not bring their infants or children to the AFCOE program.

Attendance

Students are required to attend all scheduled classes unless other arrangements have been made and approved by the Administrator. Habitual tardiness and/or absence will not be tolerated and may lead to expulsion.

Relationships

A friendly and professional association is expected between attendees. Because of the intensity of the program, dating and courting is prohibited among the participants while at AFCOE Africa. All are required to maintain a high standard of moral purity, avoiding the appearance of inappropriate attentions to the opposite sex.

Dress

At AFCOE Africa, we strive to be the best at everything we do. We realize that God has called us to be a witness for Him. As part of that calling, we believe that dress and grooming should be modest, neat, and clean.

DISMISSAL POLICY:

Participants are asked to assist the staff and other attendees by manifesting a cooperative, harmonious attitude. All must complete assignments by the date requested and abide by written rules as outlined in this document and the student policy manual. If you have concerns, questions, or special circumstances, please discuss them with our administration. Every effort is made to carefully resolve such issues.

Thank You for applying to AFCOE Africa, where church members get trained to win souls for Christ! May God richly bless you as you take this training to become an effective soul-winner!

At AFCOE Africa iSHARE, our goal is to maintain a high standard of Christian conduct both on and off campus.

We ask that all of our students read the AFCOE Africa iSHARE policies.

- I have read and agree to the AFCOE Africa policies listed in this packet, and commit to abide by the principles of Christian conduct contained therein during my training at AFCOE Africa (please download and review at www.afcoe.com)
- I confirm that the answers I have given in this application are a true and correct record of my personal details, spiritual experience and purpose for wanting to attend the AFCOE program.
